

NEW DIRECTORY UPDATES

Thank you to all who had their picture taken for the directory, and to all who volunteered time to be here during the sessions. If you missed your picture being taken, Rev Yo Han will take your picture with his camera M-Th from 8:30-12:00 (please double check that he does not have a home visit or meeting), and on Sundays after the second service. Please check to make sure your information is correct in the MaziBook app. There are some names misspelled. Update your address and email in the app to make sure it gets into the hard copy directory. To upload your picture, or make changes to your profile, please download the MaziBook app by going to www.mazibook.com/install-app or find it in the app store. Enter code 3539160 to gain access to the directory. For questions, see Natalie.

CARE FOR MIGRANTS FROM THE UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

We have the gift of 3000 to 4000 migrants to the Denver Metro. The Bible tells us to help the needy. A synagogue near Colorado Blvd and Alameda is accepting warm coats, jackets, sweaters and sweatshirts. There will be a trip Monday to carry any donations gathered in our lobby by 4 pm and each Monday as long as they are needed. There will be a trip on Thursday mornings to carry donations as long as they are needed. You are invited to bring donations to our church lobby!

ALL CHURCH CELEBRATION

February 5th will be the All Church Celebration after the second service. Please plan on attending to help approve the budget and see the recipients of the Faith Award and Quiet Disciple.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Children's Corner: On Sunday we learned that Jesus chose Levi, a sinner, to spend his time with, and share a meal with. When other God loving people saw this, they wondered why Jesus would do such a thing. Today, let's read the book Lions Lunch by Fiona Tierney and see how one little girl was able to make a change in the jungle by showing others the good inside of them. <https://youtu.be/qSsoNQERnpc>
